

Faculty of Fine and Applied Arts, Drurakij Pundit University

B.F.A. program (Creative Design), Faculty of Fine and Applied Arts offers three majors: Fashion Design and Fashion Business, Interior Environmental Design, and Graphic Design. The fundamental courses in arts, both theories and practices, are offered to the students to prepare them for the future courses in specific areas. The Faculty members consist of well-qualified and experienced professors, guest lecturers, experts and entrepreneurs from the fields, who are able to offer the students practical, comprehensive, and in-depth knowledge and experiences. Every year, the students from the Faculty win awards from famous organizations and institutes. The Faculty also organizes various types of activities for the students to offer broader aspects of learning experiences that are not limited to the classroom only. One example of our activities is Silpakum International Art and Design Week, which consists of different activities such as exhibition, art movies, workshops and lectures from nationally and internationally famous designers and lecturers.
