

Faculty of Architecture, Kasem Bundit University

In 1987, Kasem Bundit College was given a permission by the Private University Division, Ministry of University Affairs to start a 4-year B.F.A. Program in Interior Design and Visual Communication Design under the administration of the Faculty of Liberal Arts. Later, both programs were transferred to the Faculty of Fine Art. Then in 1988, the Faculty of Architecture was established. The Faculty started a 5-year Bachelor of Architecture Program. Therefore, the two programs were transferred to the Faculty of Architecture, which offered three B. Arch. Programs as follows:

1. Architecture Program
2. Interior Design Program
3. Visual Communication Design

In 2002, the Faculty started a M.F.A. Program (Special Program) in Interior Design.

In 2013, the Faculty started a 4-year B.F.A. Program in Product Design.

In 2018, the Product Design Program changed its name to Innovative Product Design Program.
